BRIDGET JONES'S BABY

ORIGINAL MOTION PICTURE SCORE CRAIG ARMSTRONG

Tuesday, 31st January 2017 ~ 2pm starring Renee Zellweger, Colin Firth Street & Hugh Grant, Bridget's focus on single life and her career is interrupted when she finds herself pregnant, but with one hitch ... she can only be fifty percent sure of the identity of her baby's father.

Critics say: More than a match for the original, the third outing for Bridget has a solid story with holes you'll forgive thanks to the much-missed onscreen magic created by a director and her leading woman.

Tuesday, 21st February 2017 ~ 2pm starring Dave Johns & Hayley Squires tells us the story of a middle aged carpenter who requires state welfare after injuring himself at work & is joined by a single mother in a similar scenario. Winner Palme D'Or 2016

Critics say: Ken Loach crafts a Cathy Come Home for the 21st century that resonates long after you leave the cinema.

21st March 2017 ~ 2pm starring Bob the Cat as himself this is the true story of James , homeless, a recovering drug addict, and desperate to turn his life around. But he's also alone and friendless – at least until he meets 'A Street Cat Named Bob'.

Critics say: A Street Cat Named Bob, a savvy exercise in inspirational feel-good cinema lightly seasoned with grit, is adapted from James Bowen's autobiography.

19th April 2017 ~ 2pm What a cast! Bernard Hill, Simon Callow, Una Stubbs, Virginia McKenna, Sue Johnson, Alun Armstrong, this British Comedy tells the story of a group of law abiding citizens who having seen their pensions diminish decide to take action

Critics say: The humour is exceedingly gentle and the plot increasingly improbable. But John Miller directs steadily and the performances are irresistibly knowing.
